Our Condolences

We, Harari Alliance for Justice and Equality saddened to hear the passing of Sultan Hanfareh Ali Mirah. May Allah have mercy on him and grant him Jannatul firdows and wish Sabr to his family and to the great People of Afar.

Born in 1942 in Asayita, as Muslim tradition's directives, he studied his primary Arabic and religious studies in his home town Arabiya School. There after he completed his primary education in Asmara, Eritrea. He then pursued his high school education in Addis Ababa and obtained his bachelor's Degree in Political Science in Washington DC, USA.

Sultan Hanfareh Ali Mirah succeed his late father Sultan Ali Mirah as the spiritual chief of the Afar People on November 10, 2011 and was one of the architect and founder of the Afar Liberation Front, who led the Afar fight against the Communist Derg in 1975.

Sultan Hanfareh Ali Mirah was a friend to Harari People and his legacy in leading & care of his people is commendable and definitely will remain in the hearts and minds of the Afar People.
